MEDIUM BIO — 150 words

Peter Allen has spent over 25 years leading transformation in major organisations, most recently as Executive Director, Corporate Affairs and Communications at National Highways, and previously at the Bank of England and the European Central Bank. He is the author of The Conscious Organisation: In the age of AI, capability is a commodity, and founder of Prosilience, where he advises senior leadership teams on the leadership risks of AI deployment. His proprietary AI Archetypes Framework gives boards and executive teams a shared language for the identity and accountability decisions hiding inside AI adoption. Peter holds postgraduate qualifications in Artificial Intelligence, Corporate Affairs, and Leadership from Saïd Business School, University of Oxford, and an MBA from The Open University. He is also Chair of Trustees of the CLL Support Association, a national charity supporting people living with Chronic Lymphocytic Leukaemia.
